

Join us as we “Unstuff the Pooch Pads” and Help Animals in Need

All month long Calgary Humane Society has been collecting toys, treats and wishlist items for shelter animals in need this holiday season. These items have been piling up in our pooch pads (dog kennels) just waiting to be shared with hundreds of animals who will be without a home of their own during the holidays.

On Wednesday December 20th we will “unstuff the pooch pads” and sort these donations in preparation for a special delivery to our shelter animals on Christmas Day.

Please join us for this fun event as we celebrate the holidays and the generosity of the Calgary community.
